Additional Information

- 13 units from the major department can double count with GE requirements. Courses in bold indicate GE requirements. Visit the GE website for course selection: csulb.edu/ge.
- All International Studies majors are required to develop a program of study in consultation with the program advisor. Majors should choose their foreign language, foreign study or internship experience, and senior seminar research project to reflect this emphasis.
- Students must earn grades of “C” or better in all upper division classes (with the exception of I/ST 492).
- A course can only be counted towards one category in the major.
- Appointments with the Program Advisor and the Education Abroad and Internship Advisor may be scheduled through the online appointment scheduler on the International Studies website:
