- The minor in Latin American Studies

MAJOR in Spanish (RGR BA_03):
Students are required to complete a Basic Core of 21 units (required of all degree students) and an additional 18 upper-division elective units. In addition, students must also complete two years or the equivalent of university-level study of a second foreign language, or demonstrate the equivalent level of proficiency in another language. This requirement can be fulfilled at a junior college, accredited university or by an equivalency exam. We also offer accelerated courses in French and Italian for Spanish speakers.

LO.T.E:
The requirements for the B.A. also satisfy the requirements for the Single Subject Teaching Credential in Spanish as long as the courses are taught in Spanish. It is highly recommended that students interested in the Single Subject Credential consult with the LOTE (Languages Other Than English) Advisor, Cynthia Leathers.
